2024 AIDL CONFERENCE: SECOND CIRCULAR

Thanks to financial assistance from the research support program of the Secrétariat du Québec aux relations canadiennes, the International Academy of Linguistic Law, the Université de Sherbrooke, more specifically the Faculty of Law, the Department of Arts, Languages and Literatures, the Centre de recherche sur la régulation et le droit de la gouvernance (CrRG) and the Centre de recherche interuniversitaire sur le français en usage au Québec (CriFUQ), and the Association québécoise de droit constitutionnel (AQDC) organize the :

18th International Conference of the International Academy of Linguistic Law Law, languages, indigenous peoples, minorities, fragile majorities and Governance in Québec, Canada and the World
June 3-5, 2024, Sherbrooke, Québec, Canada

As mentioned in the first circular, the congress will therefore be an opportunity to reflect on the governance of language policies in the broadest sense, particularly those of official languages in the public sphere and private enterprise, minority languages, indigenous languages or languages associated with fragile majorities. The proposed themes are : State, Community and Official Language(s); Language law and the sphere of private enterprise; Minority language; Language of Indigenous Peoples; Fragile linguistic majority; Language and Education, Terminology, Translation and Governance; Language, standardization and reference tools.
